LANGUAGE CLASSES FOR PARENTS OF FRENCH IMMERSION STUDENTS

GRIMSBY — Parlez vous Francais?

The District School Board of Niagara, along with the Central Public School council, is hosting French courses for parents of French immersion students. The classes begin in March and will run through the end of May.

With Central Public School in Grimsby having the largest French immersion enrolment in Niagara, the classes are being offered to help parents who may not be up to snuff when it comes to the country's second national language.

There will be two classes offered: French for Beginners, and Conversational French.

Registration began this week, and there's a final registration night on Thursday, from 6 to 8 p.m. at Grimsby Secondary School, in the foyer.

Cost is $49.50, with an additional $5 for materials. Participants can pay by cash or cheque.

Classes will take place at Grimsby Secondary School. Kathleen Wade will run both classes.
